

STILL THEY COME.

Good Fares of Salt Mackerel Here This Morning.

Sch. Kentucky Has 500 Bbls. Medium Fish.

There are several fine trips of salt mackerel at this port this morning, the banner trip being that of sch. Kentucky Capt. Elroy Prior, which arrived with a fine trip of 500 barrels of medium salt mackerel, secured in the Bay of Fundy.

This is the third seining trip which the Kentucky has made, all being good ones, the first two having 373 and 307 barrels respectively. Capt. Prior has been gone about two weeks on this trip and secured his fare by hard persistent work, no very big hauls being made.

The last haul by sch. Kentucky was made last Thursday, when 400 barrels were secured, but owing to the lack of barrels only 100 of them could be cared for, and another hundred were given to the sch. Mist, owned by James G. Tarr & Bro. of this port, and the remainder was allowed to go.

Other trips from the Bay of Fundy this morning are the sch. Hiram Lowell, with 300 barrels, sch. Alice S. Hawks, with 150 barrels—Schs. Bertha M. Miller and Albert Geigher via Boston, with 75 and 50 barrels respectively, sch. F. W. Homans is also in from North Bay with 50 barrels.

Sch. Priscilla Smith, Capt. William Corkum, owned by D. B. Smith & Co., arrived this forenoon from off Mt. Desert with a finetrip of 425 barrels salt mackerel.

Sch. Centennial, Capt. Russell D. Terry, arrived this forenoon from Boon Island with a trip of 180 barrels of salt mackerel, secured all along the coast, the last haul of 30 barrels being made off Boon Island yesterday.

Sch. Nourmahal, Capt. Jerry Cook, stocked $5443.33 as a result of her recent seining trip, the crew sharing $126.40.

There were only two trips of mackerel landed at Boston this morning. Sch. Angelina had 50 bbls. fresh and 30 bbls. salt mackerel taken on Middle Bank, and sch. Charles N. Dyer had 9000 fresh mackerel, taken off Boon Island. The fresh fish sold for 7 cents each.

Big Fare.

Sch. Margaret, Capt. John McDonald, arrived from Grand Bank this morning with one of the largest fares of the season, the trip being estimated at over 300,000 pounds of salt cod. Capt. McDonald is one of our steady going reliable skippers, who is always counted on for a good trip.

Newfoundland Fishery Poor.

The Newfoundland fishery is reported much below last year's catch. The Labrador fishery is almost a total failure owing to the heavy body of ice along that coast up to the present time. In fact the outlook all along the coast isn't very satisfactory.
